Cook with your Food Scraps

A new TV show on the Food Channel, produced by Katie Couric, called SCRAPs is based on a professional chef taking food scraps and reworking them into new meals. The episodes include a lot of relevant, factual information about food waste. The 10 half-hour episodes will follow Sur la Table chef Joel Gamoran to a new city where he partners with food waste champions to celebrate the local cuisine and create a delicious meal with food items many consider to be waste, like banana peels, shrimp shells, chicken bones and carrot stems. You can view episodes at the Show's website (including clips and full episodes): <http://www.fyi.tv/shows/scraps>.

Greening Park Infrastructure

EPA has produced a guide titled, Green Infrastructure in Parks: A Guide to Collaboration, Funding, and Community Engagement, to encourage partnerships between park agencies and stormwater agencies to promote the use of green infrastructure on park lands. Green infrastructure can help to maximize the environmental, economic, and social benefits of parks. By building strong partnerships, agencies can improve park lands and access to parks, better manage stormwater,
